

Fig. S1. Neural network architectures involve multi-layer perceptron (MLP) blocks and an “Encoding” block which applies the sine transform described in (10). MLP (1a) and (1b) have one hidden layer and MLP (2) has two hidden layers. All neurons use the Leaky ReLU activation function.